

VI
scene for latin horror

written by

Jesus Pasos & Jesse Gutierrez

EXT. JERRYS BACKYARD - NIGHT

He opens the slide door and walks down with a trash bag walks over to the trash bin and places the bag inside.

He walks back in and closes the slide door.

INT. KITCHEN - NIGHT

Jerry walks in the kitchen and walks back and forth. He seems to regret the decision he just made.

He walks out the kitchen.

INT. LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

Empty couch.

Jerry walks in and sits on the couch. He sits back. He turns the Tv on and relax's for a bit.

H takes a deep breath. We see as he goes from stressed to relaxed.

INT. LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

The room turns red. Jerry is asleep on the couch. He slowly wakes up, his eyes fully open.

He doesn't realize the room is red at first. He slowly comes to a realization of the change the room made.

He looks around confused at the red light. He stays on the couch. He hears his door creek open.

He slowly turns to look at his door. He squints his eyes confused at what's going on.

He doesn't get up, you can see how frighten he is.

Dark hands comes out the room.

Jerry starts to get frighten a bit.

The hand comes out even more.

Jerry starts to Freak out even more.

The hand fully extends out as if something is about to come out his door.

Jerry goes into full panic mode!